Welcome to our Garden Concert!

Three scots and a Portuguese!

About Us

Three Scots and a Portuguese! Together they are The Corran Quartet. They had planned the entire Beethoven Quartets Cycle for 2020, which sadly was cut short after just a couple of concerts! Fortunately they are now focused on outdoor performances and have a busy schedule for the rest of 2020 and 2021. Their story.....after playing together in a variety of ensembles, and soon realising that their mutual passion was the string quartet repertoire, Ed, Kirsty and Molly (the 3 Scots) and Joana (the lone Portuguese!) decided to come together to form a new quartet, and so The Corran was born.

They recently had the pleasure of performing live on BBC Radio 3's 'In Tune.' Next up is a series of Garden Concerts throughout London, and from October, back to Fidelio Cafe for some more Beethoven.

The quartet is a new member of SoundUp Arts, an organisation that specialises in developing programmes for people with dementia.

(sounduparts.com). As such, they are about to embark on a project to play for as many people as possible in various Care Homes in England, bringing the joy of music to residents whom otherwise would not have access to live music.

“They have a rare natural expressivity in their playing which is very touching”
